MICHIGAN MARKET MAKER™

Linking Agricultural Markets

to Work for You!

Michigan MarketMaker is a free Web site that lists businesses and markets of agricultural products in Michigan, providing an important link between producers and consumers. You can create your own farm listing, complete with a farm descriptions, products, contact information and more, to make it easier for markets to find you, as well as to search for markets in your area. This workshop will help you develop new products and marketing methods and to find more markets for your products!

When: Wednesday, September 22, 2010
6 p.m. – 8 p.m.

Where: Wayne County Community College District
(Western Campus)
9555 Haggerty Road
