Partnerships and Planning”*

SAVE THE DATE! Join us for the 9th annual Michigan Family Farms Conference on Saturday, January 14, 2012 at Lakeview High School in Battle Creek to learn about challenges facing family farms and growth opportunities for the future.

Connect with other growers and great resources, network, and learn about pesticide certification, social media, Cottage Food Law, hops production, careers in agricultural and natural resources, hoopouses, free-range poultry, cheese-making and more!

Visit www.miffs.org/mffc to learn more.

This year’s keynote speaker is Dan Carmody, President of the Eastern Market Corporation. Eastern Market has been feeding Detroit since 1891 and is one of the oldest markets in the U.S.

Mission Statement: The Michigan Family Farms Conference is a forum for beginning, small-scale and culturally diverse farmers to network, learn and build sustainable family farms.
